For Your Farm?

You are a farmer. You five near this town. You own land. Let us say that you own more than you need and would like to sell a bundred acres How much could you get per acre?

Land values have risen lately. Hut has the value of your land risen as you think it should? Your land is good land. You think it is worth considerably more than anybody has offered you. Well, let us see,

A man luying farm land naturally prefers to locate near a thriving, up to date town. He wants good imme markets for bits crops. He wants good

Let un any your land is farm that looks very much like yours is three miles from a town twice as big and twice as prosperous as this town.

If you were going to buy a farm for your own occupancy, wouldn't you pay a whole lot more for land near the 'n that is _t_twice twice as lar

Of course you would. It would be good bustness. Now, what makes a town big and bustling? Money. Mousy in circutation. Not in circulation to Chiengo, for instance, but right in the town that wants to grow, How much money have you sent to the big Mati Order houses in the city the past ten years? How much have your neigh-bors sent? How much have all of you together put out of circulation here at home?

calculation. If all that money bad been spent in your own home town, isn't it reasonable to assume that the lowu would have grown more than it has grown?

Wouldn't this town be a bigger and better town?

Wouldn't it have more stores to buy your produce?

Wouldn't it have more public improvements to make it more attractive to outsiders who might come here to live, to go into business, or bny your surplus land at a good figure !

> Legrand returned with three beautiful bine-winged teal hanging from each

"Legrand, how did you manage to have so much luck all of a sudden when you were not able to get any thing the two preceding mornings?" "To-day," he replied, "was the first time I could get them itned up so that I could bag them all at one sbot."-Forest and Stream.

At Homes for Customare "Shopping at-homes" is the lates ldea of a dressmaker in Paris. The decorations of the half of her estabiishment are carried out in a Wedgewood design. The batusters are cushloned with red veivet. There is an old rose salon, where the walls are paneled in white, and the carpeta, curtains and luxurious couches are of old rose brocade. In the gold salon the walls are paneled and the furniture upholstered in gold brocade. In these rooms tea is servad, with things to eat, and fashionable women may look at the gowns on the models and chair

Watch the Milk Bottle. We are nearing the hot mouths whan the infantile death rata will take its annual abrupt upward tura, and in four or five weeks this mortality will once more show itself in its customary shocking details. Much of it is due to milk, and not necessarily to milk that was impure before delivery. If the parents of the community wish to sava the babies, the ramedy for the summer ili rests to a large extent with themselves. Watchfuiness of the milk bottla from this time on will go a long way in preventing the dreaded diseases which mean so much in the country's vital statistics.- Detroit Free

McRoberts Drug Store. FEEBLE OLD LADY Has Strength Restored By

Ballard-Snow Liniment Co.

Vinol Mrs. Michael Bloom of Lewistown, Pa., who is 80 years of age, says: a long time I have been so feeble that have had to be wheeled around in an invalid's chair. I had no strength and took cold at the slightest provocation, which invariably settled on my lungs, and a cough would result. My son learned of the cod liver preparation called Vinoi, and procured a bottle for me. It built up my strength rapidly, and after taking three bottles I am able to do most of my work, and I can walk a quarter of a mile easily. Every aged or weak person who requires strength should try Vinoi. I am delighted with what it has done for

As a body builder and atrength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, and after sickness, Vinol is unexcelled. If it fails to give satisfaction we will return your money.
